Normanton

Welcome

Normanton town centre is well established and thriving with an enviable number of independent retailers. There are 100 businesses in Normanton offering shoppers everything from fresh vegetables to shoes, houses to hair do's. Many of the retailers are based on pleasant pedestrian precincts, allowing shoppers and visitors to also admire much of the town's Victorian architecture at a relaxed pace. Whatever you are looking for you will be sure to find it here in Normanton!

With ample parking around the town and accessible bus and train routes to the centre Normanton is the perfect place to shop, eat and drink.

Market

Normanton Market has 18 shops, with a wide range of goods from fresh produce, flowers, and hardware to greetings cards, household textiles and a café. Alongside the shop units, there are more than 40 stalls with friendly local traders selling everything from prams, clothing, plants, DIY tools, sweets and fresh produce.

Normanton Market is in the heart of the town's main shopping area, with pay and display parking next to the market place. The market is open Tuesdays and Saturdays 9am - 4pm.

Car Parks

There are over 250 off-street car parking spaces in or around Normanton town centre operated by Wakefield Council. A 'pay and display' system is in use from Monday to Saturday from 8am - 4pm (unless otherwise stated). Parking is free on Sundays and Bank Holidays.
